Name of Field	Courses taken already (insert course #)	Courses yet to be taken
Economic History
Other courses

Student to initial these statements as appropriate:

I anticipate that I will complete the field course requirements by the end of the third year.

Sequences conform to the Department’s guidance on approved field sequences

(If applicable) Any sequence variations or any non-preapproved sequences have been approved by a field representative and the Director of Graduate Studies

Students anticipating any problems in completing the field courses requirements by the end of their third year should contact the Director of Graduate Studies as soon as possible.

Part 2: Draft of a Economics 501 Paper

Typically, this paper is presented in the Economics 501 seminar in the Fall Quarter of your third year. Your paper and presentation are then evaluated by two faculty members, at least one of whom must hold a tenure-line appointment in the Economics Department (an exception to this condition is only permissible with prior written approval of the Director of Graduate Studies). The faculty member signing this form need not necessarily hold a tenure-line appointment in the Economics Department.

Title:

Signed statement by one faculty evaluator:

"I affirm that the draft paper listed is likely to meet the requirements for an Economics 501 research paper for the Ph.D. degree in Economics when presented in the seminar."
