CERTIFICATION BY DISSERTATION COMMITTEE CHAIR OF INTENT TO ENTER THE JOB MARKET

Graduate students entering their fifth year and intending to be on the job market are eligible, resources permitting, for departmental funding. The student should print out this form and deliver it, along with a draft of their job market paper, to their committee chair. After reviewing the job market paper, the advisor can sign this form and either return it directly to the Graduate Secretary, or preferably give it to the graduate student to return it. The deadline for funding is July 31.

I certify that a draft of a job-market paper has been submitted to me by:

(insert name of student) _____

I certify, based on the evidence currently available to me, that this student is likely to enter the job market in the coming fall quarter.

Faculty Member (Print Name): _____

Signature: _____

Date: _____

RETURN TO THE GRADUATE SECRETARY BY JULY 31
